Plans are almost complete for the 2nd Mollycokett Day Art Show. Miss Alice Capen is again opening the Chapman barn at the head of Main Street for the exhibit from 1:00-5:00 P. M., July 29. Almost all of our contributors of last year have new pictures for us and several new members have been added to the group. Some have taken lessons; some have not; none of them are professionals. We appreciate their sharing their hobby with us and salute them for their community spirit in helping add to the festivities of the day.

Artist's Bridge, the Shelburne Birches, Bethel street scenes, John Harrington's barn in Mayville are among the familiar scenes. Other landscapes in both oil and water color are of New England and the West. We have still lifes, animal pictures, examples of commercial art, and a few portraits.

Bartlett Hutchinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loton Hutchinson of Bethel, is loaning his abstract painting "Lost Moment" to add interest to the exhibit. It is said that beauty is in the eye of the beholder and this is true of pictures as of other things in life. Many of the pictures that we commonly see are realistic and reflect the world around us as it actually looks. They resemble closely colored photographs. Expressionist painters are less concerned with reality and making objects look real but rather try to show how they feel about the world they live in. Abstract painters care little for these approaches but emphasize the world of ideas. Instead of copying real objects, they are apt to use lines, shapes and colors to express their ideas and tell their story. Such pictures are much like much of the music that we hear and enjoy even if it does not actually sound like babbling brooks or human voices or any

COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

The Selectmen have issued their warrant calling a special town meeting for the purpose of filling the vacancy caused by the death of Harold G. Bennett. The meeting is slated for Wednesday, Aug. 9th, at one P. M. at the Community Room. The polls will remain open until seven P. M. Anyone desiring to be a candidate for the offices of selectman and assessor should procure their nomination papers from the Town Clerk, which will require a minimum of fifty signers. Nomination papers must be filed with the Town Clerk no later than July 26th.

It is noted that on hot days a number of the smaller children enjoy wading in the fountain on the Common. Apparently there are those that enjoy taking the enjoyment out of life, as five pop bottles, one broken, were found in the pool on Tuesday. The bottles and broken glass have been removed and the pool should be safe, unless there is a re-occurrence of heaving bottles into the pool.

Sincerely,
Harold L. Bean

Six New Trustees Announced at G. A.

Six new members of the Board of Trustees of Gould Academy of Bethel were announced following the recent annual meeting of the trustees of the Academy.

Named as trustees were Ralph Lowell, Chairman of the Board of the Boston Safe Deposit and Trust Company in Boston, Mass.; Dexter M. Stowell, General Manager of the Stowell Silk Spool Company in Bryant Pond; Benjamin Strong, Chairman of the Board of the United States Trust Company of New York; William M. Throop, Jr., partner in the law firm of Davidson, Dawson and Clark in New York City; Murray W. Thurston, Vice President of the J. A. Thurston Company, Inc., of Hale; and Edmond J. Vachon, Headmaster of Gould Academy. Both Mr. Stowell and Mr. Thurston are alumni of Gould Academy.

"The addition to our Board of these distinguished leaders in education, industry, and finance reflects the growing interest of such men in the field of secondary education," said Sidney W. Davidson of New York, Chairman of the Academy's Board of Trustees, in announcing the new members of the Board. "Today, every privately supported school requires trustees of vision and should enlist the aid of men in all fields of activity and from all sections of the country."

Gould Academy was founded in 1836 as a four-year secondary school. Its enrollment exceeds 300 students including of the sounds that we can identify. Most pictures are a combination of all three approaches.

"Lost Moment" was done by a left-handed painter, an ex-service man. He seems to be saying that the past is lost and gone forever and can never be recaptured. If you look carefully you can identify some of the objects and colors that he used to tell his story. The white block at the left represents purity. From its roots grows a tree representing the four seasons. Spring, summer, and autumn are shown with colors only; the dead branch is winter. The white Solitaire bird was once a native of the coasts of Madagascar but is now extinct. The arm reaching for the bird almost grasps it but not quite. Over all is a gauzy veil. This type of painting makes it possible for the viewer to use his own imagination. Maybe, when you look at it, you will have a different idea.

Further details about the exhibit will be in next week's paper. Any contribution you care to make for the Bethel Health Council will be welcome but plan to come and see our pictures anyway

NEW OWNERS OF BETHEL HOTEL MAKING CHANGES

The renovation of "Bethaven Inn" in Mayville is now progressing rapidly and the well known hostelry is expected to be ready to reopen under a new name by Labor Day. Remodeling is kept to a minimum, the removal of the large piazzas being most noticeable, but the extensive refinishing—new ceilings and wall paper—constitutes a major operation.

The property was purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Claus Wiese of Poland a few weeks ago from Mrs. H. W. Boyker, who with her late husband had operated the Inn for 25 years. The previous owner, Paul Clemens, named it Bethaven. Before then, about 50 years ago, it was the home of the late Dr. William Rogers Chapman several years, when the famous fireplaces "with stone from every state" were added.

RED CROSS SWIMMING LESSONS

There has been a good attendance at the Red Cross Swimming Lessons at Songo Pond even if the weather has been cool and there is no bus. Mothers have taken time from their busy schedules to form car pools and assist in the beach patrol. Mary Billings has charge of the beach patrol for the week of July 17.

The program for next week is as follows:

Monday, Wednesday, and Friday mornings: Beginners and Intermediates.

Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons: East, West and South Bethel.

Tuesday and Thursday mornings: J. L. S. and Swimmers.

Tuesday and Thursday afternoons: Nonswimmers and new beginners.

day students from Bethel and nearby communities as well as students from other cities in Maine, other states and foreign countries. Its support has come from many sources including the late William Bingham, 2nd, who resided in Bethel until his death in 1955. Mr. Bingham's philanthropies in other areas of education and medicine are being actively continued by his trustees and include the Bingham Associates Fund of Bethel which supports Postgraduate Medical Education, and which has been instrumental in the development of the Pratt Clinic-New England Center Hospital in Boston.

Again this year the annual Norway-Park Kiwanis Club auction will be held in conjunction with the festival and a new attraction, an antique show and crafts fair is being sponsored by the Stephens Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, two days, July 28 and 29, from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m.

Last Wednesday afternoon a birthday party was given Girl Scout Leader Sylvia Evans by members of her Scout troop. ### MRS. LOWELL S. SELLING

Mrs. Mary Charlotte (Paradis) Selling died early in the morning of July 5, following a heart attack, at the home of her sister in Sister Bay, Wis., where she was spending part of the summer.

Mrs. Selling was born on December 21, 1902. She received her education at Battle Creek College, Battle Creek, Mich., where she graduated in 1922. She taught in the public schools of Detroit until her marriage in June 1934 to the late Dr. Lowell S. Selling. They made their home in Detroit, and, later, in Winter Park, Fla.

About 25 years ago, Dr. and Mrs. Selling purchased the Baker farmstead on the hill just east of Songo Pond. They converted it into a summer home. Mrs. Selling has identified herself with many local activities, so that she and her family are well-known summer residents of the Bethel area.

Mrs. Selling is survived by a son, Bernard, now in the U. S. Air Force; a daughter, Mary Lee, of Boston; a sister, Mrs. Benjamin Gower of Sister Bay, Wis., and a brother, C. Paradis of Washington.

Following funeral services in Wisconsin on July 7, the body was brought to Bethel for interment in the Songo Cemetery.

Freedom can win only in light, candor, logic and truth.
